

What does this mean?

Berbere: A spice mixture containing red chile peppers, ginger, cloves, coriander, allspice, rue berries, and ajwain (also known as bishop's weed) cultivated and mixed with sun-dried wild herbs, ground to a fine powder.

Cardamom: Refers to a spice in the ginger family.

Clarified Herb Butter: (Nitir Kebe) Fresh butter slowly simmered with fresh garlic, ginger root, cardamom, and other fresh herbs, strained, then stored cool and dry.

Injera: Thin flat bread, soft and porous; made from Teff (a type of grain), often mixed with barley or wheat.

Mitmita: Bird's eye chili peppers, sun-dried and mixed with cardamom, salt, and fresh herbs, ground to a fine powder.
